BALDWIN HOPES AMERICA WILL JOIN LEAGUE

Prime Minister Raps Policy Of Splendid Isolation

By Charles P. Nutter.
Associated Press Foreign Staff.
London, Oct. 31.—(P)—A fresh appeal for the United States to join the League of Nations was made today by Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin after Great Britain's "splendid isolation" was rapped by the prime minister.

"I wish they were in it—I hope that before long they will be in it," Baldwin said in an address to the international peace society. He rapped the policy of "splendid isolation."

The United States has never been a member although their president (Woodrow Wilson) modified the league and, despite all checks and disappointments, was able to see his vision take place," the prime minister said.

"I am certain there are millions of American citizens who are watching with lively sympathy our efforts to make the league an instrument of world peace."

A few hours earlier Britain had sent three additional destroyers from Gibraltar to Malta and renewed a protest to Rome against Italian press attacks on Britain and what was termed anti-British propaganda in Egypt and other propaganda.

Mr. Samuel Hoare, foreign secretary, left for Geneva to sound out league states on the Anglo-Italian situation as the Anglo-Italian relations again came into the limelight.

Baldwin made another plea for Italian understanding, but asserted "we believe Italy is really departing from her great traditions" by making war on Ethiopia.

Although mentioning no country by name, Baldwin struck out at isolationism. "Such a policy is calculated to isolate a nation. Why is it more splendid to be by yourself than with others?"

"Let us keep our feet out of these adjutal entanglements and walk in the way of truth unswerving. We cannot choose that fugitive, clouded peace if we would x x x."

"Does anyone think that war between great nations can be a limited war and that meanwhile we can trade with both sides in prosperous neutrality? x x x We cannot look ourselves in an armed clasp and survive."

Mr. Drummond, ambassador to Rome, told Premier Mussolini yesterday it was disclosed that Britain cannot relax its fleet activities in the Mediterranean as long as the current situation is unimproved.

The British government issued a warning against trade with Italy.

Developments led to open expressions of the deepest pessimism in official quarters.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 31.—(P)—An earthquake which tore at an area 500 miles wide centered upon Helena today, killing at least two persons and injuring scores.

Several buildings in this capital city of 12,000 already weakened by more than 500 earth shocks in 19 days, shattered and collapsed.

The possibility of fatal losses in Helena, exceeding $5,000,000, was seen in reports the tremors might have wrought more extensive damage than the rolling jolts of Oct. 18. Damage then was placed at $2,500,000.

Residents who fled their homes were greeted by wintry winds and near-zero temperatures which threatened to go under last night's four-below minimum.

Striking with a rumble shortly before noon, the severe tremor shook the city for 10 seconds and sent its jolts rolling westward into Montana where it rumbled under Butte, Great Falls and Anaconda.

The movement was felt 500 miles to the west at Spokane, Wash., and extended as far north, into Canada at Calgary and Lethbridge, Alta. Only slight, however, was the force in cities outside stricken Helena.

Today's dead brought the earthquake toll to seven, five having died previously from injuries or nervous shock.

Ed O'Brien, 27, of Salt Lake City, was injured fatally shortly before noon when a falling smokestack caught him as it crashed into a brewery where he was doing repair work.

Vincent Kennedy, about 24, also of Salt Lake City, who was working with O'Brien, was instantly killed by the wrecked smokestack.

For a time hysteria threatened. Families, gathered on heavy clothing and blankets, crowded into motor cars and sat in fear of safety.

They gathered on the roads, in relief shelters and park areas.

Injured were rushed to hospitals from many parts of the city. A few workmen were reported seriously hurt when thrown from scaffolding. Most of the quake patients were injured only slightly.

The problem of caring for the injured was made greater because hospitals themselves were damaged. St. John's hospital was wrecked.

Nurses hurried from room to room in both St. John's and St. Peter's hospitals striving to quiet terrified patients.

Coming amid efforts to speed rehabilitation and repairs, the tremors—beginning at 11:37 a. m. Mountain standard time (1:37 p. m. Est.)—struck momentary terror in Helena.

Shoppers, clerks and business men rushed into the streets in the hard hit downtown section. Women and children fled their homes, many children crying.

Buildings, especially homes, which withstood the earlier shocks of October 12 and 18, and the intervening recurrent shocks which pushed the total past 500 tremors in 19 days, were generally in good condition tonight.

City Engineer Oscar Baerson did not attempt an immediate estimate of week's damage.

Most of the apparent new damage was to homes and other buildings which had been cracked and weakened by the previous shocks," he said.

He reported further heavy damage at the Shrine temple, the new high school, the Northern Pacific station, Mills Hall, and the gymnasium at Intermountain Union college.

The Montana Power Company said its natural gas service had been interrupted. However, hundreds of calls to shut off the gas to prevent possible fires flooded the office.

The Electric Power Lines were swept to the ground by swaying telephone poles, but service was expected to be normal.

Hiawatha Hits Dairy Truck

Chicago, Oct. 31.—(P)—Passengers on the Milwaukee road's crack flyer, the Hiawatha, were jared, and Albert Safford, 30, narrowly escaped death tonight when the train struck the second of two trailers Safford was hauling with a dairy truck.

The collision occurred in suburban Morton Grove. The south bound train carried the trailer about 400 feet along the tracks before it could be stopped, witnesses said.

Safford apparently did not see the flagman on the tracks because of rain. Efforts to halt the fast train before it reached the crossing were unsuccessful.

DIRECT RELIEF IN ILLINOIS TO END DECEMBER 1

185,000 Persons Will Obtain WPA Jobs By That Date

By Milburn P. Akers
Associated Press
Illinois Correspondent

Washington, Oct. 31.—(P)—Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief administrator, said today federal aid for direct relief in Illinois would be ended by December 1.

He made the statement after a conference with Robert J. Dunham, Illinois works progress administrator, and after announcing a $3,000,000 direct relief grant to the state for the first half of November.

Asked if it were possible to have 185,000 persons at work on Illinois WPA jobs by November 25, Hopkins said:

"Yes. Dr. Dunham has assured me it can be done."

"Does that mean," he was asked, "that Illinois will receive no federal funds for direct relief after December 1?"

"Illinois," Hopkins said, "will be off direct relief December 1."

The $3,000,000 grant for direct relief made to the state today was designated as for the first half of the month, indicating that another grant may be made for the latter part of the month.

Dunham told Hopkins that the works progress administration, which now has approximately 20,000 men on jobs, would have 100,000 at work in the state by November 15 and 185,000 by November 25.

"The program," Dunham said, "will be speeded considerably by a decision to work two shifts on all jobs."

Each shift, he said, would work 30 hours a week or six days of five hours each. In this way, he said, it would be possible to employ double the number of men on the projects which have been approved.

The two-shift system, Dunham said, will be employed in both Cook county and downstate and will prevail until a sufficient number of projects are underway to provide jobs for all employables now on relief.

Dunham said he was not certain that 185,000, the number of jobs he plans to provide by the time the state goes off direct relief, represents all the employables in the state.

"That is more or less an arbitrary figure," he said. "It may be more or less. We have no way of telling until the program is underway."

If the number of employables exceeds 185,000, Dunham said, the WPA will be called on for more projects.

CREDIT PRESS WITH DROP IN AUTO DEATHS

24,840 Persons Killed During Past Nine Months

Chicago, Oct. 31.—(P)—The National Safety Council today credited a current reduction in the nation's traffic death toll to the efforts of newspapers and municipal governments.

Sidney J. Williams, head of the council's division of public safety, said the press had aroused public opinion while officials of many cities had pressed vigorous drives to compel safe and sane driving.

As a result, there was a one per cent decrease in automobile accident deaths in the United States in the first nine months of 1935. In the first three quarters of this year, the council estimated, 24,840 persons were killed as compared to 25,080 in the same period of 1934.

But Williams pointed out the one per cent slump—250 lives—took on greater significance when it was realized that more people drove more cars this year. Better business conditions, he said, brought more travel. Gasoline consumption increased an estimated five per cent in 1935. Taking that into the reckoning, he added, would make a proportionate drop in fatalities of six per cent.

He figured the 1935 toll would approximate 36,000 against 36,000 for 1934 if accidents continue apace.

Williams praised the work of the press in attempting to reduce motor vehicle deaths. At least 50 papers are printing pledges through which motorists promise to be careful. Others are publishing gruesome details of auto smashups to emphasize the penalties of recklessness. Some newspapers studied at the council headquarters gave page one, banner-line prominence to smashups to center attention on the problem.

Williams noted a trend toward stiffer sentences for law violators in the movement to curtail automobile accidents.

Municipal Judge Eugene Holland took a step in that direction today with the announcement that offenders convicted in traffic could choose between going to jail or having their machines locked in a city garage for a month.

3,500 Ethiopians Killed And Wounded in Fierce Fighting on Ogaden Front

Prince Steps Out for First Time

Addis Ababa, Oct. 31.—(P)—(Havas)—More than 3,500 Ethiopians were killed and wounded in fierce fighting on the southern Ogaden front, it was learned here today.

The heaviest Ethiopian casualties were near Walwal, where Dedematch Abele Kimal, commanding Emperor Haile Selassie's forces, was reported killed.

The Italians were said to be solidly entrenched, supported by field artillery and tanks.

Addis Ababa, Oct. 31.—(P)—Ethiopian military circles discussed today unofficial and wholly unsubstantiated reports of a fierce and bloody battle yesterday near Makale.

These reports said Ethiopians attacked in the darkness, annihilating several thousand Italians and that the Ethiopians suffered 3,000 casualties.

The reports stated the Ethiopian casualties were mostly due to the fact that soldiers were unable in the darkness to distinguish their comrades from the fascists.

The same report said daybreak disclosed the most bloody scenes, with the battlefield strewn with corpses, on which vultures fed. Ethiopians and three Italian dubais (native troops) were reported killed today in a sharp battle northwest of the town of Makale.

Bands of Italian irregulars, hearing that Ethiopians in strong numbers intended to attack, anticipated the move with a surprise offensive, it was reported.

Following a short but fierce fight, the Ethiopians fled, allegedly leaving 11 dead and many wounded, in addition to livestock and other booty.

In addition to their three dead, two of the dubais were wounded.

(The dispatch did not give the location of Makale, which does not appear on maps.)

PREMIER WANG OF CHINA SHOT AND WOUNDED

Would-Be Assassin Is Member Nationalist Party

Nanking, China, Nov. 1.—(Friday)—Premier Wang Ching Wei and two other officials, it was learned authoritatively, were wounded by a would-be assassin today.

The premier's condition was reported as serious.

Chang Chi, former president of the Judicial Yuan and Kan Hai Kuang, chief of the political bureau of Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek's headquarters and also vice-minister of the interior, were the others wounded.

The Rengo Japanese News Agency, crediting Chinese sources, said the would-be assassin was a member of the central executive committee of the Kuomintang (Chinese Nationalist Party) and that the shooting occurred shortly after the opening of an important meeting.

Shanghai, Nov. 1.—(Friday)—Premier Wang Ching Wei was shot today by a member of the central executive committee of the Kuomintang (Chinese Nationalist Party) shortly after the opening of a political meeting, the Rengo Japanese News Agency, crediting Chinese sources, reported from Nanking.

The dispatch said details of the premier's condition were being withheld, as was the name of his assassin.

Pandemonium broke loose among party officials and others in the vicinity, the correspondent said he was informed.

The shooting assertedly occurred at 9:10 a. m. in front of the ceremonial hall of the Kuomintang headquarters, where a large group of officials, including Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek and President Lin Sen had assembled for a group photograph.

All doors of the building were closed by guards immediately after the shooting, the Rengo Agency stated, and a search for the would-be assassin was conducted.

Premier Wang, later Rengo advised, was wounded in the chest, but his condition was not reported.

Martial law, the dispatches stated, was proclaimed at once.

After the attempted assassination, a group of civilians in a crowd that gathered, engaged in a gun fight with police.

The nationalist organization's "Blueshirts" in North China were singled out in a Japanese protest last Monday as being an "anti-Japanese element" which must be eliminated in that part of the country.

BURNED TO DEATH

Reading, Pa., Oct. 31.—(P)—A papier mache jack o'lantern at a gay Halloween party, and a kitchen stove, caused the deaths of two children today.

Four-year-old Edna Greely, whose clothing caught fire from the lantern, died in a hospital. Her mother, Mrs. Robert Greely, was burned trying to beat out the flames.

Two-year-old James Henderson was burned at a gas stove, and died five hours later.

Two Suspects Are Killed In Auto Accident

Automobile Travelling 90 Miles An Hour Crashes Into Telephone Poles

St. Louis, Oct. 31.—(P)—Speeding 90 miles an hour to escape a pursuing deputy sheriff, an automobile driven by Mrs. Josephine Farrell, 25, overturned today and killed two men.

The dead were Fred Walker, 40, of Kansas City, and Doc "Cutie" Kelly, 40, of Mansfield, Mo. Mrs. Christian, wife of Elwood Christian, 25, of Ava, Mo., was critically injured.

The pursuit began when the occupants of the car, leaving Christian under arrest, sped away from Deputy Sheriff Tony Passler and State Weight Officer Earl Easton. They had been stopped for questioning regarding the robbery of a tavern near Pegasus, Mo.

Each of the officers fired a shot at the fleeing automobile before Passler, leaving Christian in the custody of Radcliffe, ran to his own car and gave pursuit.

Within a mile from the start of the chase, Passler said, he was driving 90 miles an hour and was "just keeping pace" with the fugitives.

As the speeding car rounded a curve in the highway it skidded from the road, crashed through two telephone poles and rolled 100 feet. Kelly was instantly killed and Walker died shortly after his arrival at the county hospital from a fractured skull.

In the wrecked automobile were found an extra set of Kansas license plates, a quantity of paper the size of United States currency, some of it blank and some printed to resemble stage money, and two shotgun shells.

Christian, taken to state highway headquarters at Kinross, told officers he was at liberty on bond on a counterfeiting charge in East St. Louis, Ill.

Black Diary To Be Destroyed

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 31.—(P)—The black diary of Gerald Thompson, in which he described some of his amorous adventures, will be destroyed, State's Attorney E. V. Champion said today.

Thompson died in the electric chair several weeks ago for the slaying of Mildred Hallmark, pretty restaurant hostess.

His diary was one of the means by which he was incriminated. It was certified to the Illinois supreme court when Thompson appealed his conviction, but was not opened.

Champion has had the book returned to him and will dispose of it.

"They were dying before the war began," he said. "I can promise you the Italians will not reach Addis Ababa next year, nor the next year, nor ever."

The officer is en route to Sweden.

JOHN L. MARTIN SPEAKS BEFORE WELFARE GROUP

Refuses To Discuss Federal Relief Reductions

Associated Press Staff Writer
East St. Louis, Ill., Oct. 31.—(P)—Just what step Illinois will take to cope with its relief problems as a result of the unexpected slice in federal relief allotments for the first two weeks of November, apparently will not be known until John L. Martin, chairman of the Illinois emergency relief commission has had an opportunity to study the figures.

This was disclosed late today when Martin said he had no statement to make at this time because the figures released are confusing and misleading, but added he would probably have something to say later.

Previously Governor Horner announced he would not comment on the WPA allotments until Martin conferred with him after completing his study.

Martin was the principal speaker at the closing session of the 40th annual Illinois conference of social welfare workers today.

He pointed out the welfare workers should recognize the fact that federal action is not a permanent solution to the relief problem. He declared a system whereby the state acted in an advisory capacity and the counties in the administrative capacity would go far in reaching an effective solution to the relief problem.

A. L. Bowen, director of the Illinois department of public welfare, who also spoke at the concluding session of the welfare conference, stated unemployment will always be a problem, and urged the enactment of a permanent system for unemployment relief.

C. V. Williams, of Chicago, representing the children's field in conference discussions, urged the enactment of a permanent system for unemployment relief.

C. V. Williams, of Chicago, representing the children's field in conference discussions, urged the enactment of a permanent system for unemployment relief.

The proposed legislation," he declared, "will make it possible for many children in need to participate in benefits created through the federal social security legislation."

AAA PREPARES FOR SUPREME COURT RULING

Secret Committee Is Canvassing Source Of Action

Washington, Oct. 31.—(P)—A committee of agriculture department economists and lawyers was officially disclosed today to be canvassing every possible source of action should the Supreme Court rule against the AAA.

Although the names of the committee members remained guarded, a high official reported that the group had been working for several weeks.

AAA lawyers have listed what they consider all possible combinations of decisions by the high court on the validity of the AAA and the processing taxes.

Department officials maintain that the court will uphold the farm administration when the decision is handed down, probably in January, but that they intend to be prepared should they be wrong.

In discussing the agriculture department's intent not to be caught napping, one official explained there might be any number of possible combination decisions. The court might find one part of AAA legal, and might invalidate another.

The committee, this official said, was investigating new sources of revenue should the court hold that the processing taxes could not be levied.

A general sales tax.

A sharp increase in income taxes.

A loan of approximately $500,000,000 annually to foreign nations to restore their purchasing power.

Belief was expressed in high quarters, however, that opposition to any of the suggested substitutes would be far greater than that which has been expressed toward processing taxes.

NAMED SECRETARY

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 31.—(P)—C. H. Engle, head of the statistical department in the office of the state superintendent of public instruction, was today appointed secretary of the Illinois Teachers' Examining board.

He succeeded A. L. Whittenberg, of Springfield.

Bands of Italian Students Threaten Establishments They Believe to be British

DOLE WILL END IN 20 STATES NOVEMBER 15

By John Evans
Associated Press Foreign Staff
Rome, Oct. 31.—(P)—Boisterous bands of students threatened establishments they believed to be British tonight as Benito Mussolini invoked a state of "economic siege" for all Italy.

After howling "down with England" in a demonstration before the British Embassy until gendarmes drove them away, the students descended after dark on business and amusement places that aroused their ire.

They smashed glass, hoisted effigies of Emperor Haile Selassie and shouted against "foreigners" until police dispersed them.

A big lamp hanging in front of a tea room on the Via Sistina, operated by Italians but displaying English signs, was broken and a map of Adowa was pasted on the window.

Then 200 students started for the Embassy night club, an English-American establishment, but the management, forewarned, rolled down iron shutters before the crowd arrived.

The students next started for the British consulate, on the Piazza Dispassa, but police were there ahead of time and chased them away.

Glass in a picture of vaudeville girls at the "Florida" dance hall, where the performers are foreigners, was smashed and the youths cried: "We don't want foreigners."

During the afternoon there was a similar demonstration in front of a British owned drug store. There was no damage, but the proprietor closed the store. Later, police promised to prevent further trouble.

Dozens of police and carabinieri in their claw-hammer coats and cocked hats patrolled the vicinity of the British Embassy, scene of a forenoon demonstration.

Reserves were held in readiness for emergency and officers were stationed at strategic points to signal the approach of demonstrators.

The Embassy demonstration was started by students marching home after hearing of Duce's condemnation of sanctions at the inauguration of the new University of Rome.

They waved placards denouncing Great Britain and shouted "down with England!" until police dispersed them.

Embassy officials said they knew nothing of the disorder, however, until servants informed them.

It Duce pledged "implacable resistance" to sanctions. At the same time he pushed through the parliament a law of sanctions of troops to Abyss and ordered a slight reduction in food prices, effective tomorrow.

Next week butcher shops throughout the country will begin Tuesday closings. On Wednesdays they will sell no beef, pork or veal.

Two Cases Of Paternity At 104 Are Found

Academy Of Medicine Finds One Case Where Man Virile At 120

Chicago, Oct. 31.—(P)—A medically authenticated case of paternity at the age of 94 years was reported today by the Journal of the American Medical Association but another authority stated the case was far from setting a record.

The Journal said New York physicians had duly verified the fatherhood of a Confederate War veteran, born in North Carolina in 1840, whose 94-year-old second wife became a mother some months ago.

The name of the veteran, father of 18 children by his first wife to whom he was married in 1872, was not revealed.

In New York, Dr. Iago Goldston, executive secretary of the New York Academy of Medicine, said, however, that John Gilley, a native of Ireland who died in August, Me. in 1913, was virile until his 120th year. Two cases of paternity at 104 years were known to medical annals, Dr. Goldston said.

The New York obstetrician in the Journal's account described the 94-year-old father as having always been a man of outdoor habits. He chewed tobacco but did not smoke and had tapered off his customary consumption of alcohol several years ago.

In commenting the Journal which asserted the case was first of a man of such advanced years "within our knowledge in which fertility has been definitely and affirmatively checked medically" added:

"The record tends to throw doubt on the doctrine sometimes advanced that hard work is inconsistent with fertility. It also may be considered to question the occurrence of and constancy of the menopause in the male."

ARREST SUSPECT

Freeport, Ill., Oct. 31.—(P)—Ancl O. Bennett, 37, who, police said, manufactured and distributed spurious nickels and dimes, will be taken to Springfield, Ill., to stand trial tomorrow for passing counterfeit money. Bennett was arrested at Rochelle, Ill.

WILL APPLY SANCTIONS

Geneva, Oct. 31.—(P)—Egypt, although not a member of the League of Nations, announced today that it had decided in principle to apply economic and financial sanctions against Italy.

DOLE WILL END IN 20 STATES NOVEMBER 15

Harry Hopkins Lashes Out At Critics Of Administration

By Thomas J. Hamilton, Jr.
Washington, Oct. 31.—(P)—Blunt-spoken Harry L. Hopkins lashed out at administration critics today as he announced that the "federal dole" for direct relief will end in 20 more states November 15.

Grimly asserting that "my own hide has grown considerably tougher" in recent months, the works progress administrator told his press conference:

"The assertion of General Hugh Johnson that the work relief program is a failure was 'a lot of damn nonsense.'"

That Governor Alf Landon of Kansas has balanced his state budget by "taking it out of the hides of the people," that Kansas has "never put up a thin dime for relief" and that as far as "I know the governor has never made an effort to raise any more money."

That Governor Eugene Talmadge of Georgia was "unwilling to do anything. He believes in the whipping post."

Mingled with these sharp personalities, and Secretary Ickes' earlier denunciation of Johnson as one who suffered from "mental saddle sores" and who criticized the public works administration because he wasn't put in charge of it, were these concrete work relief developments:

Hopkins allotted funds to 30 states for continuing the dole during November—with six already cut off direct relief, while allotments to three others including Kansas remained undetermined—but gave 29 only enough to carry them until the November 15 deadline for liquidating

The Red Tent

The Emperor of Ethiopia has sent his red abelter tent to the front. In fact he has sent two tents, one to be used by his double. If the Italian airmen spot one of the tents, there is no way of knowing whether the king or his double is in it. If they drop a bomb, it may not hit Haile Selassie at all, and that will be a huge joke on the Italians. But it won't be very pleasant for the king's double.

But if the Italian fliers see both tents and drop bombs on both, the king will be sure to get them. Knowing the king is practicing, they will of course look for two tents and will bomb anything on the landscape that has a reddish hue.

The news coming out of Ethiopia reveals how backward the people really are. The warriors are fed meat to make them more fierce, which will mean little in the face of Italian artillery and machine guns. The Emperor lets it be known he will go to the front and take along the royal umbrella and the red tent, which are nothing to the equipment of his army.

Huge stores of American Winchester rifles and ammunition buried nearly forty years ago by the king who defeated the Italians at Adowa are now being dug up and distributed to the soldiers of the Negus. The guns have a short range, but the wounds they inflict are almost incurable on account of their huge bore. The Ethiopians prefer close fighting, but they will be lucky if they get such an opportunity against the Italians with their modern long-range weapons.

but not before some 200 of them went over the rapids. Game wardens explored the loss and searched the river below the falls to see if any had survived the plunge.
They found 27 birds, and rushed them to a game refuge. Here they were revived with brandy, and 25 of the number were saved. Two of the birds died. The geese were kept in the refuge until they were able to fly after their grueling experience.
The geese were enroute south from their summer vacation. They selected the wrong place for an overnight stop, but they will probably not profit by the experience. They have short memories. It is fortunate for them that man has decided to protect them.

War By Popular Vote!

James A. Van Zandt, national commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, declares that we ought to have a constitutional amendment transferring the right to declare war from the Congress to the people as a whole. Under such an amendment, the country could not declare war unless the declaration was approved in a nationwide referendum.

"We demand an iron-bound, fool-proof policy which will give the people of this nation—those who will fill the trenches in event of war—a chance to say whether or not we are ready to go to war," he says.

It is certain that such a proposal will meet with a good deal of opposition; and it is equally certain that its basic idea is perfectly logical. "It is the ordinary, plain, every-day citizen who does the fighting, pays the taxes and suffers the agonies of sacrifice when war comes. Why not let him have the last word on whether war is to come at all?"

People's Forum

This Department is Conducted by Our Readers. The Opinions Given Are Theirs.

Illinois has a Mother's Pension law. It is designed presumably to provide such help that mothers having dependent children and without other means of support, may remain with their children during their formative years secure in the knowledge that their minimum requirements of the essentials of life are provided. How many mother's pensions are being paid in Morgan county at this present date? How many "cases" cared for at the Relief are eligible for enrollment under the provisions of the Mother's pension act?

The Mother's pensions is a substitute for the adequate care a husband and father is supposed to be able to provide for his family. A substitute has been defined as "a product, usually of inferior quality, designated to take the place of a superior product." I have never heard a definition for a substitute-for-a-substitute. At some time, more than two years ago, I have been told, the Morgan county commissioners decided that they would accept no more names for enrollment on the Mother's Pension list (also the Blind) that they would maintain the list of that date but no other names would be considered. If I am wrong, please correct me. What peculiar quality was there in those earlier benevolences that gave to their loved ones this special consideration at the hands of our public officers? Was this action after THE BANK FAILURE? Doubtless, then you would plead shortage of funds. Should not public funds for such a purpose be EQUALLY distributed so far as possible among those eligible to share in their benefits?

An official high in administrative phases of The Relief was once quoted as saying that the Mother's pensions were being used to maintain the aged widows. The plight of the woman too old to form new contacts and without adequate means of support is pitiful beyond imagination. Which is likely to be of more far reaching social significance: she, or the child who proudly proclaims: "Mother has an order for us all some new shoes" or helpfully planning ways and means of achieving some childish desire, in all seriousness can say "can't you see the Relief lady? Maybe SHE—?"

At this time of the approaching election of a commissioner, it is pertinent to ask: What is the attitude of the candidates on this question of the revision of the pension rolls? (The Blind as well as the Mothers.) The call for special legislative assembly has been made. This question of adequate Mother's pensions is listed as one to be considered. While the phantasmagoria goes on in Springfield, what are we as a county thinking?

Yes, I am one who is selfishly interested and I believe in line for consideration should the Mother's pensions be brought up to date. My husband has been dead for more than two years. At first I did not ask for a pension, proudly thinking that should I be able to obtain employment as a school teacher—my profession before marriage—I would be able to support my three small children (the oldest was eight at that time). Ten years of experience has not been enough to outweigh up-to-date educational qualifications of people twenty years my junior. You have your family. They need you at home. You could not give your undivided interest to your work. Do you not get a Mother's pension? With an expression of surprise and some incredulity when assured that such was not the case.

Yes, I am on the relief rolls. "A substitute for the Mother's pension" I was told when my original application was refused and blanks for Relief given me. The relief does not make provision for my rent. One of the items considered in the pension blanks asked for an estimate of the rent paid. The relief does pay my light bill for I use kerosene lamps which same fuel must be purchased as a part of my grocery order. The pension blanks have space for estimate of separate expenditure for light. The Relief estimates one ton of coal should last a family a month. (This was modified somewhat, during the extreme cold weather of last year.) It is subject to the decision of officials nevertheless. The pension application asked for estimate of the sum needed for fuel. The Relief looks up the date of the last order for your shoes, clothing etc. It has to. There are individuals without sense of responsibility and seemingly without conscience when a public fund is open to their demand. The Mother's pensions blanks asked for the average amount usually expended by the family for clothing. Doubtless all these figures would be subject to scrutiny. Certainly no home should be allowed an excessive budget particularly when it is provided at public expense.

Should not this reasonable sum be provided to ALL rather than arbitrarily restricted to some?

Behind The Scenes In Washington

To Put It Kindly, Roosevelt's Some Doubt About Hoover's Job Figures . . . Unemployment Census Ban Stir Comment . . . Rough Seas Bring Revenge to Ickes . . . Careful Cal Played Safe With Check.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal and Courier Washington Correspondent

Washington.—If you remember the amazing sleight-of-hand feats the Hoover administration used to perform with so-called statistics on unemployment, you probably recognize certain none too faint words which can be detected as the New Deal girls for battle in the 1936 campaign.

Suspicion that someone has been trying to bury a dead mackerel is heightened by indisputable evidence that the administration suppressed a proposed unemployment census such as, at one time or another, had been proposed by nearly everyone in its ranks.

More than one economist in the government suggest, privately, that that action must be much easier for President Roosevelt to make his recent claim that the New Deal had re-employed nearly 5,000,000 since March, 1933, in the private industries reporting to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Roosevelt didn't explain whether he had suddenly found the 5,000,000 General Johnson was going to put to work through NRA in the fall of '33 or the 5,000,000 Jim Moffett was to employ in the fall of '34 through FHA.

But everybody knows unemployment figures are a statisticians' guessing game and if the A. F. of L. estimates—more than 11,000,000 out of work now as compared with 13,000,000 in March, 1933; unemployment greater than a year ago—are no good, neither are various other estimates.

Census Turned Down

The Co-ordinating Statistical Committee, through which the Central Statistical Board and WPA approved survey work relief projects for white-collar unemployed, unanimously recommended a Census Bureau survey of unemployed, which would cost $9,000,000. The schedules were all worked out and the census would have begun Nov. 15.

But Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Harry Hopkins—who long ago promised such a census—and Miss Frances Perkins—who made devastating exposures of the last administration's faked figures and had also promised a census of jobs—all turned thumbs down.

Even individual states seeking grants for unemployment censuses of their own have found they can't have any WPA money for them.

All of which may have some connection with the fact that a scientific chart of unemployment secretly worked out this summer by federal statisticians indicated that 800,000 more persons were unemployed in June, 1935, than in June, 1934.

It certainly suggests an unwillingness to face the fact that industrial production is outstripping re-employment.

Ickes Has Sweet Revenge

Secretary Ickes, who once refused to attend a cabinet meeting on shipboard in Annapolis harbor with the assertion that "I'm willing to die for my president, but I won't get seasick for him," had very little fun on the presidential cruise to, through, and from the Panama Canal. Except at shore stops.

Some of the correspondents thought Roosevelt played Ickes a dirty trick by making him go along, though admitting he had hardly dared leave either or both Ickes and Harry Hopkins in Washington.

Just the same, Ickes has confided to friends that he had entered his soul when, after he alone had experienced miserable days going down the west coast, the cruiser Houston hit heavy seas in the Caribbean. It was then that Harry Hopkins proceeded to get seasick, too.

Cal Played Safe

Roosevelt's trip to Cambridge, Md., to open the Choptank River bridge, reminded an old-timer at the White House of a hitherto unrecorded Cal Coolidge story.

Cautious Cal was going over to attend certain ceremonies at a small town church in Maryland.

A Secret Service man who had explored the ground reported that a small contribution to the church from the president would be welcome. But, he added, if Mr. Coolidge wanted to make the operation painless he could write a check, which the church people undoubtedly would frame and preserve.

Coolidge wrote the check. The church framed it. And the check is still on the walls, unshaded.

Parents Lose Boy Film Star

The two winsome girls in the top photo may have their famous brother, Freddie Bartholomew, child film actor, for an occasional playmate, but Freddie, it appears, will not become "one of the family." For the children's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil L. Bartholomew, shown below in their London home, lost their fight to regain Freddie's custody when a Los Angeles court named as his temporary guardian his aunt, Miss Helen, who has chaperoned the sensational rise in Hollywood, and with whom the 11-year-old prodigy has lived since he was 10. The parents charged the aunt had abducted Freddie.

Jerseyville Child Awarded Damages

Margaret Ann Miller Gets $4,000 for Injuries When Hit by Car

Jerseyville.—After a twenty hours session in the jury room the jury in the case of Charles W. Miller and Margaret Ann Miller, an infant, by her father and next friend vs. Raymond Estel Spangle, complaint for personal injuries, reached a verdict in favor of the plaintiffs.

Damages in the amount of four thousand dollars were assessed in favor of the infant plaintiff Margaret Ann Miller and three hundred and fifty dollars in behalf of the father, Charles W. Miller, for cash expended in medical treatment for the infant plaintiff's injuries.

The case arose out of an accident occurring on West Pearl street at noon on the 12th of November, 1934. At that time, Margaret Ann Miller, Jerseyville grade school pupil, was struck by a car driven by Raymond Spangle and injured. Spangle was a student at the time in the Jersey Township high school.

The case was called for trial Monday morning in the Jersey county circuit court by Judge Victor Hemphill of Carlinville. The major portion of Monday morning was taken up with the selection of a jury.

FINE HARVEST MAY SUFFER WITHOUT CONTROL OF RATS

Urbana, Ill.—Better crops of grain, vegetables and fruit harvested in most sections of Illinois this year and being stored in cribs and cellars can be protected from winter damage by rats and mice through use of poison bait, according to G. C. Oederkirk, of the U. S. Biological Survey, cooperating with the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, and the Illinois State Natural History Survey.

Cooling weather and the hint of approaching winter are being taken by the rats and mice as a signal to move to winter quarters in and around farm buildings. The best time to kill off these marauders is before the fall crops are all stored and before the rodents have had a chance to become established on the premises near the stored crops, Oederkirk said.

One of the safest and most effective rat poisons is red squill. It is fatal to rats but relatively harmless to domestic animals and humans. Consequently it can be used where highly toxic poison would endanger livestock and pets. One part of red squill to 16 parts of food is the best proportion, according to Oederkirk. A variety of foods such as cereal, meat and vegetables or fruit should be used to attract the rats.

Where rats are burrowed in the ground, under concrete floors and other confined places, calcium cyanide powder is effective, since it can be forced into the burrows with a duster. However, it gives off a deadly gas, and the greatest of care must be used in distributing it to avoid breathing this gas.

Another poison suitable for unexposed places is barium carbonate mixed at the rate of 1 part poison to 4 parts bait with canned salmon, hamburger or similar foods.

The poisoning campaign should be started in October and repeated at intervals during the next few months or until the rats and mice have been eradicated.

Auto Club Wants 100 New Members

School Patrol System and Other Activities are Proving Valuable

Jacksonville's Automobile club announces a membership campaign for 100 A.A.A. members during the next two weeks, seeking to put the local club among the leaders of the central Illinois organizations. Based on service to the community and to the individual motorists T. M. Tomlinson, manager of the Jacksonville club, urges support of the drive.

That the auto club merits the support of all motorists because of its intensive safety work is the opinion of Manager Tomlinson, who points to the school patrols now operating at parochial and public schools as one of the features of the A.A.A. safety work.

Nearly seventy-five boys are registered in the Jacksonville safety patrols, and the local club is also benefiting neighboring communities in sponsoring patrols at Winchester, Bluffs, Pittsfield and Barry. This helps to build good will among Jacksonville's neighbors.

The Jacksonville Auto Club also helps to keep the city's streets free from glass and will remove broken glass from any public thoroughfare on call to motor club headquarters. Visiting motorists are also made to feel at home through courtesies extended by the club and other community services are given.

Plans on Foot for Annual Red Cross Roll Call in County

R. E. Gillette Discusses Chapter Work; Finds Local Officers Pleased

The Morgan county chapter, American Red Cross, is making rapid strides in its campaign plans for large gifts and memberships. The chapter has carried a large program of Red Cross activities throughout the past year, and board members are hopeful that this community will again show its appreciation and acceptance of the Red Cross program as carried on locally and nationally.

R. E. Gillette, field representative from the St. Louis office, spent a few hours in Jacksonville recently conferring with Gust Bergquist, chapter chairman, and other leaders in the community. The local chapter has been active in carrying on first aid classes, life saving classes, Junior Red Cross work, and has now started a campaign to reduce accidents in the home and on the farm. Miss Alma Mackness, executive secretary, has been exceedingly busy throughout the past few years in assisting ex-service men with their many and varied forms of claims work. This work is exceedingly technical and requires expert and trained leadership in successfully interpreting the legislation passed by congress.

This service to the community is keeping many families from the relief rolls, while at the same time this service means much to the social welfare of those needing this type of service. Many requests for home visits to families having men in active service in the army, navy, marine corps, and coast guard come to the attention of Miss Mackness daily. The Red Cross cooperates with federal forces in this important piece of social welfare.

Mr. Gillette came to Jacksonville to discuss program activities with chapter personnel, being especially interested in the new farm and home accident prevention program. This program is being conducted on a nationwide scale in an attempt to bring to the attention of our citizens the many hazards existing in the home that so frequently cause serious accidents and over 34,000 fatalities each year.

Mr. Gillette and Mr. Bergquist discussed with local community workers the need for interpreting the work of the local chapter to citizens that will be asked to support its work.

Jacksonville and Morgan county need the work of the Red Cross, and the total budget must be realized. The many activities of the local chapter and the great amount of disaster relief carried on by the national organization together with its many other accepted program activities of an educational nature, merit the very best support that Morgan county citizens can give. Mr. Gillette told citizens.

In making this initial announcement of Red Cross work and plans for the coming campaign, Mr. Bergquist said he was experiencing the finest type of support from community leaders in making the coming campaign a complete success. Campaign plans will be announced through the press within a few days, according to Mr. Bergquist.

Officers of Club Federation Attend Concord Institute

Women Meet Wednesday at Home of Mrs. Newton for Conference

District officers in the Federated Women's clubs attended the Institute held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. E. Newton in Concord. This club Forum was given at the regular meeting of the Domestic Art club, which will hold its tenth anniversary in January. The society is planning to take up active work in the various departments of the Federation, which the Institute brought up for discussion.

Mrs. Newman, president of the club, opened the meeting and presented Mrs. Roy Davenport, county president, who conducted the meeting emphasizing the general topic, "Service of Women's Clubs to the Community."

Mrs. Clairance Skeel, president of the district, was the first speaker, stressing the department work as a responsibility which club women should promote as a benefit to the life of the community. She stated that the various objectives outlined by the state organization tended in a very decided way to aid in finer homes, schools and cities.

A round table discussion was led by Mrs. Herbert J. Capps, district chairman of American Citizenship, who stressed the protection of American ideals in the nation by fostering them in the schools, homes and by a study of all legislation. Mrs. Capps also spoke of the necessity of voting to continue the work of the Oak Lawn Sanatorium. Mrs. G. B. Andre, district chairman of Public Welfare, told of the department plans and urged all club women to study the problems of their community as well as the state in this work and to bring speakers to their societies, to inform them of the activities and the great need of the support of this department.

A social hour was held after the meeting and refreshments were served by the hostess.

FAT GIRLS GET THE GO-BY—SLIM GIRLS WIN MEN

Loss Fat The Easy Way—Without Starvation Diet, Harsh, Exhausting Sals or Weakness, Irritation, Habit-Forming Laxatives.

There's a reason why so many people find dieting slow and often times futile in reducing. The reason, doctors say, is often because a little gland is not working right. All the blood in your body goes through this tiny gland sixteen times every day. If it doesn't pour into the blood stream about one and one-half drops of vital fluid every 15 hours, many people take on ugly fat. This does help nature to "burn up" excess food and fatty tissue in much the same way as a good "draft" acts in a furnace.

Now, physicians combat this condition by feeding the gland the substance it lacks—and millions of pounds of excess fat has been wiped out this way.

Marmola Prescription Tablets are based on the same scientific method used by doctors. So don't waste your time or money striving to reduce with methods that are hard, futile or depend on harmful, health-rackling salts and laxatives for their action. Select the Marmola treatment today that millions have used successfully to get rid of excess fat. The formula is in every box so you know just what you are taking. Don't wait—get Marmola today from druggists.

$48,677 Will Be Spent at State Hospital for Repairs, Improvements

Extensive repairs and improvements on grounds and buildings of the Jacksonville State hospital yesterday were assured with the authorization of a $25,978 federal fund to be handled through the Illinois Works Progress Administration. With the State of Illinois furnishing materials and the W. P. A. footing the labor bill, improvements totaling $48,677 will be carried on at the hospital during the next year.

The project was made a certainty when a federal warrant aggregating $10,478.789, was issued to Robert J. Dunham, state W. P. A. administrator. These funds will be spread to projects in almost every county in the state. Proposed improvements at the state hospital include much activity both on the grounds and in the buildings. Five thousand cubic yards of dirt will be moved in filling, grading, seeding and sodding 444,000 square feet of lawn. The plans call for extensive terracing, planting of 200 trees, 2,000 shrubs, building of four rock gardens and three sunken gardens. One hundred and twenty-one rods of new fence will be erected on Morton avenue.

The appropriation will pay for new locks and hinges on 1,000 doors; electrical rewiring of 15 wards; 4,000 square yards of plaster, repairs on dormitories, new spouts and gutters, the painting of 250,000 square feet of buildings, trimming of 200 trees, building of 70 square yards of concrete walks and brick work on the rear driveway.

The hospital project will provide work for common laborers, carpenters, painters, brick masons, concrete workers, electricians, tanners, plasterers, roof carriers and other workmen.

The appropriation for W. P. A. projects in Morgan county announced yesterday totals $55,513.

Other Morgan county projects which are expected to start soon are:

Concord—Improve highway between Concord and Arcadia. Federal funds $3,646.

Franklin—Improve roads. Federal funds $24,978.

Meredosia—Construct stilling well and attach to bridge shelter. Federal funds $1,088.

While America was shocked at Germany's invasion of Belgium nobody in the United States wanted war. As the war progressed this country came to the point where it had more against the Allies than against Germany, until the sinking of the Lusitania. The Allies continually violated trade rights of this country, while Germany's offenses were almost entirely submarine.

President Wilson's representatives in Great Britain felt the influence of English statesmen and became involved in movements for America's entry into the war on the Allies' side. Wilson thought of himself as a possible mediator but Col. House became too friendly with Great Britain thus impairing his contact with that nation.

Germany wanted peace in 1916 but Wilson was busy engaged in getting himself re-elected and was afraid to lead into peace negotiations. After the election the Allies offered peace terms but they were so similar to terms that would be offered to a thoroughly defeated nation so Germany refused. This ended negotiations and America was soon drawn into the conflict.

Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with anything less than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble to aid nature to soothe and heal the inflamed membranes as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Get Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

"Grandpa, Show Us How You Licked the Italians at Aduwa in '96"

Still in their teens, but already cannon fodder is the plight of these boys surrounding the graybearded veteran of Ethiopia's halcyon days of 1896, when the Italians were defeated at Aduwa. As the chief of their Ogaden village and caparisoned in his regalia of office, he has led the youngsters, many of them only eleven and twelve years old, to Harrar as recruits for Ras Tasse's army.

Lynnville visitor in the city yesterday included James Spencer.

Walter Dobson of Murraysville was a business visitor in Jacksonville yesterday.

PREACHES ON FAMILY LIFE OF LONG AGO

Dr. Vanderhorst is receiving unusual interest in his series of sermons at the Woodson Presbyterian church during Sunday evenings. The church services begin at 7 o'clock.

The subject of the series is "Glimpses into the Family Life of Biblical Times."

Last Sunday evening he spoke on "The Family Life of Adam and Eve." Next Sunday evening it will be "Abraham and Sarah."

The doctor is using modern psychology and modern standards of conduct—and this makes the lectures new and fresh.

Man Found Guilty Of Assault; Another Trial is Demanded

Jury Returns Verdict Against Louis Walt; Attorneys in Argument Over Case

Louis Walt, residing in the north part of the county near Arenzville, was tried in county court yesterday morning on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon and was found guilty by a jury in manner and form as charged. Carl E. Robinson, attorney for the defense, made a motion for a new trial. The motion will be argued later.

Walt is charged with having fired a rifle at his daughters, Mary and Margaret Walt, on Oct. 13. In testimony in his own defense at the trial, Walt said he did not intend to shoot the girls, but admitted he fired three shots from a 22-calibre automatic rifle, he said was loaded with high-speed bullets.

The daughters testified that they had run from the house to get away from their father, who they said was quarrelsome. Walt admitted he had been drinking, but said he was not drunk. He said he fired the rifle to scare the girls after they had started down the road. He said he did not put the gun to his shoulder, but held it at a 45-degree angle, shooting into the air.

One of the girls testified that she heard the shots and heard a bullet whistle. The girls said they did not see their father aim the gun at them. Attorney Robinson and State's Attorney W. H. Asher argued the case before the jury, and Judge W. E. Thompson gave the instructions as to the law in the case.

There was considerable difference of opinion between the attorneys as to the law in the case. Mr. Asher contending that it was not necessary to prove intent, but merely that the accused had committed the act because of "an abandoned and malignant heart." Mr. Robinson contended that Walt did not intend to harm the girls though his shooting into the air may have been a foolish act.

Members of the jury were Leo Taylor, Frank Taylor, Gregg Rogers, Hugh Sergeant, Ray Spillman, and John Mullen. The trial of the case consumed most of the morning, and was held in the circuit court room.

Librarian Gives Talk
The October meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held in the grade school auditorium Monday evening with a large attendance. Miss Edith Hyatt, principal of the grade school, is president this year and Mrs. Oren Ratnes is secretary.

Mrs. Ethel Ross, librarian of the White Hall Township Library, was the speaker for the evening. She told of how the present library was organized; how it is controlled; how to use it; how the present library building was built as a memorial to Mrs. Elia Whiteside Griswold, by her husband, Seth N. Griswold; how the library was started by the now defunct White Hall Round Table club; of the services rendered to citizens of the township and how all the rural schools in the township are benefited by the use of books from this library, and closed with a list of books that parents and teachers should read.

Professor Leedom's Juvenile orchestra provided music for the occasion. This orchestra was organized as a school band, but because of lack of finances the school board no longer sponsors the school band and it is now independent of the school. However, it is carrying on under an organization of the patrons of the school.

During the business session the memorial committee reported there are 105 paid up members so far this year.

The organization meets the last Monday night in each month.

Carrollton to Invade City for Game With J. H. S. Crimsons Tomorrow

Michigan Is New Source of Worry to Big Ten; To Meet Penn This Saturday In Game

Chicago—(P)—While Ohio State and team when the season neared the finish. Every great Michigan team of modern day football has had a sensational passer. Coach Harry Kipke calls Bill Renner a greater passer than either Bennie Friedman or Harry Newman. The Wolverines are punning, passing and praying again.

Michigan's disastrous start this fall. When Michigan State licked the Wolves, 25 to 6, on the opening day of the season, October 5, the Big Ten relaxed from that old source of worry and centered its attention on the Buckeyes and Gophers. Coaches who didn't have Ohio State and Minnesota on their schedules, exchanged congratulations.

But the worry is back, operating from the old maize and blue stand. Snapping back after the Michigan State collapse, the Wolverines played smart, defensive football to prick the big Indiana Bubble, 7 to 0. They caught Wisconsin on the rebound and locked the Badgers, 20 to 12, by snatching the breaks at Madison. Last week, playing their punt, pass and a prayer formation to perfection, they invaded and beat Columbia, 19 to 7. Nothing very impressive in those victories, but the schedule and comeback drive is typical of those that have found Michigan as a mighty penalty for misplays.

Expect Layden Will Stick by Same Men

One and Perhaps Two Irish Boys May Be in Line-up at Ohio State

South Bend, Ind.—(P)—The "Fighting Irish" of Notre Dame will start one and possibly two Irishmen in their football game against Ohio State, Saturday.

Jim Martin, right guard is the one ground son of Erin virtually sure to be in the starting lineup. The second, a possibility because early season injuries may keep him out, is Mike Layden, right halfback and brother of the Notre Dame coach, Elmer Layden.

The rest of the "Fighting Irish" starting lineup reads like a League of Nations roll with a half dozen nationalities represented.

Layden, who learned his football under the late Knute Rockne and starred as a member of the great Four Horsemen, plans to use straight football against the Buckeye powerhouse. It is strange but true that the Irish haven't been given more than a half dozen new plays all season.

Free Golf Final Two Days Is Decree Will Close Course Next Monday; New Bunkers Traps In Use

Golfers who want to get in their last licks at the game will have their last opportunity this Saturday and Sunday at the Nichols Park course. After those dates the course will be closed.

And as sort of a reward to the players who have used the course extensively this year, the final two days of the season, Saturday and Sunday, will be free days, the Park board has decreed.

New bunkers and traps around the number one green will be in use until Sunday night when the course will be closed for the purpose of topdressing the greens for the winter months.

Carnera Meets Neusel Tonight

By Eddie Brites
Associated Press Sports Writer
New York, Oct. 31.—(P)—They've patched up old Primo Carnera again and will toss him back into the boxing wars against Walter Neusel, rugged German heavyweight, at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night.

The fight is scheduled for ten rounds. Carnera was a 6 to 5 favorite tonight, but the bout has attracted little wagering interest.

It will be the man mountain's first bout since he was knocked out by Neusel, who has scored victories over Jack Petersen, the British heavy; Tommy Loughran, Ray Impellittere and King Levinsky, among others, has fought twice this year, both times against Peterkin in London. He won each time by a knockout.

If Neusel whips Carnera, he has the half-year promise that he will be in the second of two bouts in March in the second of two bouts in March in the second of two bouts in March.

Neusel is the better puncher, but Carnera has proved he can take it. The supporting card features a six rounder between "Night Stick" Lutz Galento, whose left hook rivals that of York choir boy. The other prelims will bring together Bob Foster, of New York, and Max Baer, of Chicago, who once licked Louis as an amateur; Georgia Turner, New York, and James J. Merriott, of Oklahoma; George Brescia, former Argentine amateur champion and Heinz Kohlbass of Germany; Al Delaney, Buffalo, and Frank Connelley, of Boston. All are heavyweights.

Charles Russell of near Virginia was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

FAN BREEZES
By Ernest Savage

"It's just about my turn," Coach Frank Walker said the other day in talking about the coming football game with Carrollton.

The remark was occasioned by the two Carrollton victories in the last two years, and may indicate to fans just how the coach feels about this Friday afternoon engagement.

Coach Walker admits he'd like to win from both the Hawks and Carrollton, and feels that if his team is good enough to win from these two teams, Virginia and Wood River, the other two games on the schedule will be automatically taken care of.

One thing is outstanding about this year's Crimsons, and that is that there have not been a lot of injuries serious enough to hamper the squad. "We had trouble finding enough overcoats to go around," said Sasse, "so I bought each of the boys an extra sweat shirt."

Looking forward to a good basketball season, he hasn't been rash enough to forecast a long winter, because his team lacks height, but he has enough veterans that he expects to hump off some of the teams from bigger schools before the firing ends around in March.

Managing Officer Dan Cloud of Illinois School for the Deaf is going ahead with his efforts to land a regional basketball tournament for the local school this year, but put in their application a bit too late.

Pittsfield had the sectional last year and probably would like to have it back. They have a good place for it over there, but the Tigers, with a building devoted entirely to sports, doesn't have to back up from anyone in the matter of facilities.

Major Sasse to Use Northerners in Game If Weather is Cold; Boys From South If Warm

Highland Falls, N. Y.—(P)—Major Ralph Sasse, whose Mississippi State football team is enroute on the outskirts of West Point for the expressed purpose of defeating Army Saturday, pulled a new one out of his bag of tricks today.

"We carry quite a few northern and western boys on our squad," said Major Sasse whose team hit the headlines when it bowled over Alabama and there'll be eleven of them in there if the weather is chilly. "If it continues warm, we'll start off with a team from below the Mason-Dixon line."

In the squad of thirty-odd players, more than a dozen hail from the east and middle west. Charlie Glatka, Major Sasse's all-American end candidate, is a Chicago product.

"We had trouble finding enough overcoats to go around," said Sasse, "so I bought each of the boys an extra sweat shirt."

Carrollton Hawks, recently dethroned from leadership in the Illinois Valley conference, but still tight up with the top-notch teams, will come out some lateral, double laterals, keeping up their string of victories that promise to make the going tough for the Crimsons defense.

Against White Hall, the Crimsons were able to concentrate on stopping a running attack, a detail which they accomplished well. Against Carrollton, however, they will have to be set to stop both a hand driving line attack and forward passes.

Carrollton's ace forward, Capt. Malher Reif, will be a marked man for the game. Reif is going to find plenty of opposition wherever he moves, something the husky tackle has been accustomed to find in games this year.

The Crimsons line-up probably will be the same as against White Hall, with Frank and Hamilton, ends; Chinowith and Bradshaw, tackles; Hopper and Breeding, guards; Hartman and Darr, center; Ranson, Scott, Davis and Benson, backs.

Carrollton probably will use the same line-up that started against Roodhouse last week.

Against White Hall, the Crimsons were able to concentrate on stopping a running attack, a detail which they accomplished well. Against Carrollton, however, they will have to be set to stop both a hand driving line attack and forward passes.

Carrollton's ace forward, Capt. Malher Reif, will be a marked man for the game. Reif is going to find plenty of opposition wherever he moves, something the husky tackle has been accustomed to find in games this year.

The Crimsons line-up probably will be the same as against White Hall, with Frank and Hamilton, ends; Chinowith and Bradshaw, tackles; Hopper and Breeding, guards; Hartman and Darr, center; Ranson, Scott, Davis and Benson, backs.

Carrollton probably will use the same line-up that started against Roodhouse last week.

Carrollton Hawks, recently dethroned from leadership in the Illinois Valley conference, but still tight up with the top-notch teams, will come out some lateral, double laterals, keeping up their string of victories that promise to make the going tough for the Crimsons defense.

Haven't Had Time to Work on Own Offense

Columbus, O.—(P)—Coach Francis A. Schmidt, watching the Ohio State freshman squad complete forward passes against the highly touted Ohio State regulars, moaned: "You guys will have to do better than that, for them Notre Dames are better than our freshmen."

And when the secret practice was over, he moaned again:

"We're having such a tough time trying to dope out a way to stop Notre Dame that we can't find time to practice our own offense."

The dopsters today were talking about Ohio State winning by a pair of touchdowns or more in this alleged football "battle of the century." They said:

1.—The Irish showed their hand against Pittsburgh under the eyes of Buckeye scouts. The Bucks—"You ain't seen nothin' yet."

2.—"Jumping Joe" Williams' flying feet will offset Bill Shakespeare's phenomenal punting.

3.—Ohio has the deciding factor of reserves—big men who can go in there fresh and fighting.

Auto Club Acts to Prevent Accidents

Sends 300 Letters to Local Citizens Urging Caution and Co-operation

The Jacksonville Auto club is sending out some 300 letters to local citizens urging co-operation in the prevention of traffic accidents. It is pointed out that the death-rate from accidents on streets and highways is increasing to an alarming extent.

The club has sponsored the establishment of school patrols and the use of safety posters. An effort is being made to impress each motorist with his own responsibility in the use of caution and care in driving.

The local men expect to do a barnstorming business with the plane, moving from town to town and taking up passengers.

Eagles Do Not Kidnap Babies Expert Claims

Also Denies That Porcupines Shoot Quills And That Birds Hibernate

By Seth H. Mosley.
Associated Press Staff Writer.
New York, Oct. 31.—(P)—Who says that eagles kidnap babies, owls can't see in the daytime, and porcupines "shoot" their quills?

Whoever they are, they're "nature-fakers."
So said officials of the National Association of the Audubon Societies tonight as they initiated plans to educate the public to all the foolish fallacies about birds and animals.

"Those 'yarns get in my hair,'" said John Baker, executive director of the society, "which reminds me of another fallacy."

"Everyone who doesn't know says that bats get in your hair. Well, they don't. Bats are of great benefit—they're insectivorous—and they don't care for hair. But watch people duck if a bat ever gets in a room with them."

Definitely in a debunking mood, Baker and his assistant, Warren Eaton, greeted those who say that eagles can carry off children, sheep, pigs or deer.

"It has been shown that no eagle can lift more than, roughly, its own weight of 10 to 12 pounds," they agreed.

And here's a list of a half dozen nature "truths" that the Audubon Society passes on for those "who'd like to really know."

1. The mountain lion is the "biggest coward" of the woods. He won't attack man.

2. The porcupine doesn't shoot quills. It sinks its barbed "arrows" by contact only.

3. Birds never hibernate; they migrate. An occasional chimney-wit will duck in for the winter in a hollow tree, but birds don't hibernate in trees or bury themselves in mud.

4. Snakes don't swallow their young to protect them.

5. "A good hawk is a dead hawk"—a frequent fallacy of intelligent farmers.

6. "Hoop" snakes and "glass" snakes are non-existent. The mythical hoop snake is the one who sticks the end of his tail in his mouth, then "hoops" along. And the glass snake is the fellow that allegedly breaks to pieces when you start to talk to over with him.

And, says the Audubon Society, the

Bombs Damage 2 Police Stations In Milwaukee

Five Public Buildings Blasted Since Last Saturday

Milwaukee, Oct. 31.—(P)—Two police stations were bombed here tonight, bringing to five the number of blasts at public buildings and banks since last Saturday. One person was reported injured.

One blast was at the No. 5 station at Third and Hadley streets, and the other at Twelfth and Vine, a short distance away. First reports that a bank building had been the target of one bomb were found to be erroneous.

The Hadley street station was most seriously damaged, a wall being torn open and several windows smashed. A pedestrian was reported cut by flying glass. Damage to the other station was said to be small.

At the Twelfth station, the bomb was placed on a window sill at the rear of the building. A patrol wagon and a squad car in the garage also were damaged.

Patrolmen Carl Fritze, Walter Laab and Carl Klein had just stepped out of the garage and were having lunch in the kitchen of the station.

The home of Mrs. Sophia Meterhausen was badly damaged, windows and walls being shattered. Mrs. Meterhausen seated at a window, was blown from a chair but was uninjured.

She Schupach, a grocer across from the No. 3 station at Vine street, said he was standing outside his store when he heard the thunderous roar and saw a flash.

The bomb was either planted or thrown at a rear window of the Vine street station garage. The force of the blast blew out all windows and tossed iron bars framing the window about thirty feet.

Some equipment for testing radios on police squad cars was damaged slightly.

Oil Men Favor William Borah For President

Heartily Approve His Demand That "Trust Busting" Be Number One Issue

Chicago, Oct. 31.—(P)—The broad-rimmed campaign hat of U. S. Senator William Edgar Borah was pushed a little further toward the 1936 presidential ring today by the "Little Fellows" of the oil industry.

Without specifically naming him as their candidate to oppose President Roosevelt next year, independent gasoline and oil dealers gave hearty approval to the Idaho insurgent's demand that "trust busting" be the No. 1 issue of the Republican campaign.

The action came in the form of a resolution based on "anti monopoly principles" expressed by Borah in a letter early this month to Colonel Theodore Roosevelt.

Borah in the letter scoffed at some party leaders' efforts to make the constitution the campaign issue, and asserted monopolies was a question the party must handle vigorously or "go down to humiliating defeat."

The resolution, offered by Clarence Shock of Mt. Joy, Penna., capped two days of meetings at which the National Oil Marketers Association asserted their distaste for the Roosevelt New Deal.

Madrid, Oct. 31.—(P)—All Paramount films in Spain will be banned effective Monday unless the movie, "The Devil Is a Woman" is withdrawn from world circulation and the negative destroyed. War Minister Jose Maria Gil Robles announced tonight.

Spain has barred the Marlene Dietrich picture because of a drinking scene in a cafe. Authorities contended it "insulted the Spanish armed forces."

The minister of war said J. M. Meserri, Paramount manager in Spain, "showed me a cable from Paramount headquarters in which it was specifically promised the film would be withdrawn and the negative destroyed in the presence of our ambassador to Washington."

Spain, he added, "positively will enter into no negotiations on any film," unless "The Devil Is a Woman" is withdrawn and the negative destroyed before Monday, he declared.

No Paramount film will be allowed to be shown in any Spanish theater."

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 31.—(P)—Gerald L. K. Smith, the dynamic ex-preacher who assumed leadership of the "share the wealth" movement on the death of its founder, Huey P. Long, announced here tonight that he will be a candidate for president of the United States in the Democratic preferential primary in Georgia next April.

In an interview Smith said he had consented for his name to be written into the ballot when a group of Georgians approached him and urged his acceptance.

"Who knows?" he said, "I may be the next president of the United States. Stranger things have happened."

"They told me they expected to write in the name of Huey P. Long. Because he was assassinated, they asked if they could write in my name and I consented."

Georgia Chain Gang Condemned

By Bill Pepper
Atlanta, Oct. 31.—(P)—The American prison association today condemned the chain gang in Georgia and other states as "utterly inconsistent with the dictates of humanity" during a spirited meeting at which the organization defeated a resolution asking President Roosevelt to take a hand in abolishing the system.

The association's action was taken at the close of its 65th congress here after earlier going on record against rules prohibiting probationers and paroled convicts from CCC camps and from state and federal civil service examinations.

"We offer the services of the American Prison Association to those people in this and other states who do not believe in the inhuman treatment of prisoners and are seeking to abolish it," said the resolution on chain gangs, adopted as a compromise for the one defeated in which Mr. Roosevelt was requested to act.

This resolution was introduced by Austin H. McCormick, commissioner of correction of New York City and was adopted unanimously.

Visit, and Says He Would Like to Live Here

A definite choice of this city as a place to live, next to his home city of Carlville, has been made by J. E. McClure, editor of the Carlville News Democrat.

On Sunday, Oct. 20, Mr. McClure stopped here on a motor trip to Beardstown. It was not his first visit as he told in his comment on the trip. His wife was at one time a student at MacMurray college, then the Illinois Woman's college, and Mr. McClure visited the city as a member of the Blackburn college baseball team. Evidently memories linger and on his visit here recently Mr. McClure found Jacksonville a most pleasant place.

What he has to say editorially in the Democrat will be appreciated by local citizens.

"We stopped in Jacksonville. That is a very beautiful city. The city is very clean and the people are very friendly. I found the city very pleasant and I would like to live here."

"We drove by the several state institutions. We saw Illinois college. I think I was able to locate the place where as a catcher of the Blackburn University's baseball team we played Illinois college in April of 1937. Al Witt was our pitcher. He struck out sixteen men. And that was the year of four strikes. Take a pencil and figure out what his record would have been had only three strikes been required."

"When we passed by the School for the Deaf, I told the folks that one of the most interesting experiences I ever had was when I delivered the annual graduating address at that school. An interpreter stood at my side. Next to Carlville, I think I'd rather live in Jacksonville."

Wheat Prices
Up Two Cents

By John P. Boughan

Associated Press Market Editor

Chicago, Oct. 31.—(P)—A maximum rise of 2 1/2 cents a bushel in Chicago

wheat values today followed bullish

Argentine crop estimates and larger

Canadian export buying.

The Argentine probable wheat export surplus the coming season was authoritatively forecast as 56,000,000 to 72,000,000 bushels, against recent predictions of 88,000,000. Late indications were that upward of a million bushels of Canadian wheat had been taken today for shipment overseas.

Despite profit-taking on upturns,

corn 1 1/2 advanced, Dec. 30 1/2, oats 20

1/2 gain, and provisions varying from 20 cents decline to a jump of 50 cents.

Wintry weather unfavorable for the movement of wheat from Canadian rural sources acted as a stimulating influence. Liverpool wheat quotations much higher than expected tended also to boost values here. Besides, estimated Argentine wheat shipments this week showed a major rebound, being only 1,136,000 bushels compared with 1,819,000 last week and 1,952,000 a year ago.

Sudden severe low temperatures in sections of domestic wheat territory aroused uneasiness in some quarters regarding safety of the winter crop.

Strained European political conditions were also looked upon by various market observers as an incentive to purchase. On the other hand, Canada's governmental wheat marketing policy remained an enigma, and served at times as a drag on values.
